“Winning these awards for the second year in a row is very exciting for our team,” says Nathan Grossenbach, President/CEO of Shoreline. “We are committed to providing our members’ an customized, stress-free experience through our products, our technology, and most importantly our great staff. It is an honor to be recognized as the best, most trusted financial institution in our community.”

Grossenbach goes on to say that the community recognizes that Shoreline is the best choice for general banking, financial planning, as well as originating mortgages. “We continue to reduce the fees we charge, lower our interest rates on loans, create greater access to members with less-than-perfect credit, and remain committed to our “Hometown” principles. So far this year, we have achieved incredible growth in loans, deposits, and members. It is an incredible time to be a Shoreline member.”

Regardless of your homeownership status, we have a product for everybody. I am very happy to lead the “Best” Mortgage team in the area!”

The leadership of Shoreline Hometown Credit Union would also like to thank its team of nearly 40 employees who work tirelessly to support the Hometown mission and take care of our 8,000 members each day. “Our Hometown team works hard to serve our members every day,” says Business

Development Officer, Kyle Bryntesen, “This is a fun place to work and our culture is built around trust, empathy, and integrity, which all leads to taking care of our members with exceptional service.”
